

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH CENTENNIAL ORGAN RECITAL

Dr. Albert Bolitho, Organist

Sunday, October 5 at 4 p.m.

- Celebrate the 100th birthday of our building
- Hear one of the compositions played at the 1908 dedication
- Enjoy famous works for organ, including
 - Toccata and Fugue in D Minor by Bach
 - The Cuckoo and the Nightingale
- Revel in the special sounds of our magnificent pipe organ as Al draws on wide ranges of dynamic and tonal colors to play
 - Comes Autumn Time
 - Variations on “Austria”
 - Dieu Parmi Vous

We have one of the finest pipe organs in the region. Indeed, a European concert organist recently stated “this is the best organ I have ever played!”

The recital is open to the public without charge. A reception will follow. The entire program is below:

Toccata and Fugue in D Minor	J. S. Bach
Hymn Preludes Ein ‘feste Burg In dulci Jubilo Lobet den Herrn	J. S. Bach
Toccata in F	J. S. Bach
Comes Autumn Time	Leo Sowerby
“The Cuckoo and the Nightingale	G. F. Handel
Variations on Austria	John Knowles Paine
In Paradisum	Theodore Dubois
Dieu Parmi Vous	Olivier Messiaen